

On the banks of the Luangwa River, in the remote Nsefu sector on the north side of South Luangwa National Park, you will find the historic Nsefu camp. It was the very first photographic safari camp in Zambia, which dates to the fifties. We took it over in 1999, and now welcome just 12 guests in the six refurbished brick-and-thatch en-suite rondavels, each with open views across the river. Robin Pope Safaris are the only company operating in this sector of the park making for an exclusive holiday experience.

We ask that full insurance is put in place at point of confirmation. We highly recommend that every guest has insurance that covers the following as a minimum:

- Cancellation and curtailment
- Medical costs (including full hospital costs should it be needed)
- Personal accident or death
- Emergency evacuation from the point of evacuation to the nearest best hospital and then back to the guest's hometown. Family or traveling partner should also be covered for accompanying an evacuation.

We cannot emphasize how important it is to be fully covered. Private hospitals in Africa will not accept a patient until full medical insurance has been established.
